Prayer Focus: "You are looking for Jesus the Nazarene, who was crucified. He has risen! He is not here. See the place where they laid him." – Mark 16:6 (NIV)

Personal Focus

This Easter time spend some time reflecting on The Cross and the Empty Tomb (see overleaf), and thank God for his sacrifice for you this Easter.

QRBC Focus

Thank God for the work that is always going on here at QR, often behind the scenes – thank Him for everyone who serves here at the church – however small that may seem. Also pray for Keith and Karen this week as they spend time away on holiday – pray that they will return refreshed.

Coventry Focus

Spend some time this week praying for the work of Coventry City Mission – especially as they are currently in need of volunteers urgently for their ROC youth groups (running after school Tues and Wed until 5.30pm). They need help in the work with the children as well as running a tuck shop and are currently closed due to lack of help. These groups are transforming the community they are in so therefore please pray that God will provide the resources necessary here.

International Focus

Pray that the true meaning of Easter will be felt across the world this week and God's glory will be shown as people share of his love, death and resurrection – He is risen!

The Cross and the Empty Tomb

The cross means that we can look back and be thankful; the empty tomb means that we can look ahead and be hopeful.

The cross fills us with gratitude; the empty tomb fills us with expectation.

The cross means that He died for us; the empty tomb means that He lives for us.

The cross means that the old has passed away; the empty tomb means that all things have become new.

The cross is the triumph of mercy; the empty tomb is the triumph of righteousness.

The message of the cross is, "It is finished;" the message of the empty tomb is, "I am alive forever more."

The resurrection allows us to look up, to look forward, and to look ahead. When we look up we see Jesus seated at the right hand of God, when we look forward we see Him daily guiding our steps, when we look ahead we see Him coming again for His bride.

The resurrection of Jesus Christ brings the assurance that the enemy of death has been defeated, our home in heaven is secure, and our inheritance will never fade away. How good He is, and how blessed we are to serve a Lord who is alive, who is above all, and who loves us with an everlasting love!
