Personal Focus

Coventry Focus

As we continue this new year make time to spend in prayer with God. Continue to praise Him for all that is good in this world.

Pray that this year will be a year of hope for Coventry, which we can be a part of sharing the Good News with our city.

QRBC

International Focus

Pray for the church leadership at this time as they consider the way forward for Queens Road this year. Pray that Church Meeting will be a place to listen to and hear from God for his will for the way forward.

Across the world there is mixed response to the fall in oil prices, a number of countries are on the edge of /in recession due to the fall in prices. Spend some time this week praying for economic stability and government spending in line with God's will to ensure balance for the nations across the world.
