'For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve others and to give his life as a ransom for many'. Matthew 20:28 (NLT)

Personal Focus: The God who created the world and the universe came to earth to serve others by healing us, feeding us and save us. Thank Jesus for His humbleness and let us also serve others with humility.

Coventry Focus: Pray for the school children as they start preparing for a term of exams and pray they will perform well in the exams. Pray for the Coventry City Mission as they reach out for people in need and going through tough situations.

International: Pray for Kenya and its economic stability. Pray for the christian missionaries and their work there. Pray for the organisation working there to provide clear water and sanitary facilities. Continue to pray for peace in Syria and its surrounding nations.

Another of our employees, Cafe Supervisor, Sujata Devi is continuing to convalesce from her recent knee replacement operation.

Our administrator, Helen Jones would like to thank you for the flowers received on her recent Silver Wedding Anniversary.

Many thanks to the remaining staff and volunteers who have worked tirelessly to keep the cafe open and ensure the centre’s and church’s commitments were looked after at a time of reduced staffing and fewer volunteers available.
